- (ii) your taxable income in the previous financial year was not more than $125,000,
- (iii)
  - a. you do not currently hold a freehold interest in real property* in Australia; or
  - b. you do and will, up to the Loan Settlement Date, hold an interest in property but either:
    - intend not to do so on and from when you become the registered owner of the property that will be purchased with the loan you are applying for; or
    - hold it as joint tenant or tenant in common in the property to which the loan you are applying for will relate, and intend to become the sole registered owner of the property as a result of the loan;
- (iv) you do not currently hold:
  - a. a lease of land in Australia as described in paragraph 104-115(1)(b) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997; or
  - b. a company title interest (within the meaning of Part X of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) in land in Australia;
- (v) the loan is for the purchase of residential property or, if the loan relates to the purchase of an interest in land (or if the land is in the ACT, a registered lease of the land) on which a dwelling is not affixed, the loan relates to the construction of a dwelling on the land (including if you have sought pre-approval for a construction loan at the same time as you have sought the loan for the purchase of the land and you intend to enter into a construction contract within 6 months from the Loan Settlement Date of the Eligible Loan to acquire the land upon which a Dwelling will be affixed);
- (vi) you are single; and
- (vii) you are the natural or adoptive parent** or the legal guardian of a person and:
  - a. that person is a dependent child of yours within the meaning of subsections (2), (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) of section 5 of the Social Security Act 1991 (Cth); OR
  - b. that person, (i) is in receipt of a disability support pension within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991 (Cth) and (ii) lives with you.

* “real property” means the land, everything permanently attached to it, and all of the interests, benefits, and rights inherent in the ownership of real estate.

** A person is not a natural parent or adoptive parent by reason only of being a carer or guardian.

*** A permanent resident is a person who satisfies the definition of permanent resident in the Australian Citizenship Act 2007 (Cth). Your Participating Lender will advise you of the categories of permanent resident Visa issued by the Australian Government’s Department of Home Affairs which qualify.

When are you single?

A person is single if that person (i) does not have a spouse and (ii) does not have a de facto partner.

If you are separated but still married, you are not single.

When do you have a spouse?

You have a spouse if you are legally married to another person.

When do you have a de facto partner?

You have a de facto partner if you are living with another person on a genuine domestic basis, as a couple.

When is a child a dependent child?

A child is a dependent child if one of the following applies:

1. A young person who has not turned 16 is a dependent child of another person (the adult) if:
  - the adult is legally responsible (whether alone or jointly with another person) for the day-to-day care, welfare and development of the young person and the young person is in the adult’s care; or
  - the young person is not a dependent child of another adult and wholly or substantially in that other adult’s care.

2. A young person is also a dependent child of another person (the adult) at a particular time if at that time the young person has reached the age of 16 but is under 22 years of age and is wholly or substantially dependent on the adult and the young person's income in the financial year in which that time occurs will not be more than $6,403.

If you are the natural or adoptive parent or a legal guardian of a person who lives with you and who receives a disability support pension within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991 (Cth), this will also satisfy the "dependent child" requirements for the Family Home Guarantee. A disability support pension is a support pension claimable by a person with a physical, intellectual or psychiatric impairment who meets the qualification requirements under the Social Security Act 1991 (Cth).

When is a child not a dependent child?

1. A young person cannot be a dependent child of an adult unless the adult is either an Australian citizen or a permanent resident and the young person is either an Australian resident or the young person is living with the adult.
2. A young person who has not turned 16 cannot be a dependent child if:
  - o the young person is not in full-time education; and
  - o the young person is in receipt of income; and
  - o the rate of that income exceeds $107.70 per week (which amount is indexed annually by CPI).
3. A young person who has turned 16 cannot be a dependent child of another person if the other person is the young person's partner.
4. A young person cannot be a dependent child if:
  - o the young person is receiving a social security pension**** (other than a disability support pension within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991 (Cth)); or
  - o the young person is receiving a social security benefit*****; or
  - o the young person is receiving payments under a program included in the programs known as Labour Market Programs.

****"social security pension" means an age pension, a disability support pension, a wife pension, a carer payment, a pension PP (single), a sole parent pension, a bereavement allowance, a widow B pension, a mature age partner allowance.

***** "social security benefit" means a widow allowance, a youth allowance, an Austudy allowance, a newstart allowance, a sickness allowance, a special benefit, a partner allowance, a mature age allowance, a benefit PP (partnered) or a parenting allowance.

I am not aware of any matter that might disqualify me or my home loan from meeting any one of the Eligibility Criteria.
- 4 If at any time there is a change in circumstances leading me to believe that any one of the Eligibility Criteria may no longer be met, I undertake to notify the lender prior to the occurrence of such a change (providing reasonable details).
- 5 I intend to move into the home the subject of this Home Buyer Declaration within 6 months of either the date of settlement of my loan or, if later, the date an occupancy certificate is issued and, unless the ADF owner-occupier exemption (as defined in the Scheme Information Guide) applies to me, live there for so long as my loan remains guaranteed under the Scheme.

I acknowledge that none of the lender, NHFIC nor the Australian Government will be liable for any losses or costs that I may incur.
